

Startright IAG Policy

Rationale

A young person's career is their pathway through learning and work. All young people need a planned programme of activities to help them make decisions and plan their careers

Commitment

Startright is committed to providing a planned programme of careers education, information, advice and guidance for all learners in partnership with the school with which it works. Startright recognises that schools will have their own programmes of support and will work with the schools as required.

Students' needs

The careers programme will be designed to meet the needs of learners.

Entitlement

Learners are entitled to Careers Education, Information and Guidance that is impartial and confidential. Programmes will promote equality of opportunity, inclusion and anti-racism.

Management

Managers will work closely with schools to ensure that Startright assists in the delivery of IAG

Staffing

All staff are expected to contribute to the careers education and guidance programme through their roles.

Conclusion

The Information Advice and Guidance Policy (IAG) will be reviewed as part of the Startright's policy review cycle.

Reviewed: November 2018 - Next Review: November 2019